STATEMENT OF THE INDEBTEDNESS OF THE TOWN.

The notes of Thomas Chase $500, and the note of William Emery, $225, reported in 1859, remain unpaid. Also the notes of John Osborne, $229; Asa Breed, $123; James A. Hoag, $300, given in 1860; Francis Eastman, $400; Caroline Chase, $300, Frank Peaslee, $150; A. P. Collins, $53; J. A. Hoag, $100; Wm. D. White, $653, comprise the outstanding notes against the town. Also, land damages to the amount of $300, remain unpaid—amounting in all to $3333, exclusive of interest.

It will be perceived that the above debt has been incurred by building new highways, and the unprecedented expense of ROAD BREAKING.
